Miami Attorney Kimberly A. Cook Admitted To American College of Trial Lawyers

Kimberly A. Cook has become a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers, one of the premier legal associations in America.

Founded in 1950, the College is composed of the best of the trial bar from the United States and Canada. Fellowship in the College is extended by invitation only and only after careful investigation, to those experienced trial lawyers who have mastered the art of advocacy and whose professional careers have been marked by the highest standards of ethical conduct, professionalism, civility and collegiality. Lawyers must have a minimum of fifteen years trial experience before they can be considered for Fellowship.

Membership in the College cannot exceed one per cent of the total lawyer population of any state or province. There are currently approximately 5,500 members in the United States and Canada, including active Fellows, Emeritus Fellows, Judicial Fellows (those who ascended to the bench after their induction) and Honorary Fellows.

Kimberly A. Cook is a partner in the firm of ABADIN JARAMILLO COOK & HEFFERNAN, a litigation firm specializing in medical malpractice, general liability litigation, and corporate litigation.
